Hi all,

I hope some of you were able to get along to the Ace Café for the Australia day event, if you took any pictures please pass them on to me and I will add them to our website.

It now officially Spring even if the weather hasn't improved that much, but with the odd nice day and hopefully some nice weekends, it is time to start planning to visit some of the shows which are now being advertised.

Remember, that if you are thinking of selling your Holden, the Club it always willing to put an advert in this magazine and also on the website, free of charge, as a part of your membership.

Regards

Ken
