Hi all,

Happy New Year to you all.

As you probably know, the big news with Holden is the decision to cease manufacturing in Australia at the end of 2017. Although the announcement was a shock when it came, there were many factors leading up to this decision, so I have added a copy of the GM press release to this magazine.
It is intended that the name Holden will continue as a brand but will be applied to wholly imported vehicles.

Once again the Ace Café in North London is holding an Australia Day event on 26th January. This is usually a well attended event, free to enter of course with plenty of parking if you just want to go along and view the cars.

I hope 2014 is a good and prosperous year for you all.

Regards

Ken
